

Strength for the Journey

Rules of Conduct

In order to create a safe gathering, Strength for the Journey has established the following rules of conduct. Any violations may result in a participant being asked to leave immediately and/or not return in the future. Due to staff limitations, we are unable to intervene in personal disagreements or actions outside of retreat.

1. Firearms and other deadly weapons (including knives, switchblades, brass knuckles, explosives, etc.) are prohibited on site including inside your vehicle in the parking lot.
2. The consumption, possession, or distribution of alcohol is prohibited on site including inside your vehicle in the parking lot. Anyone suspected of being intoxicated or distributing alcohol to others will be asked to leave.
3. The use, possession, or distribution of illegal or recreational drugs is not permitted. This includes prescription drugs that are not prescribed to you by your doctor. Marijuana is considered an illegal drug in the state of Idaho. Anyone suspected of being under the influence of drugs or found to be storing or distributing drugs will be asked to leave. This includes inside your vehicle in the parking lot.
4. Theft of personal or facility property is not allowed. Although theft is not tolerated, please consider leaving valuables at home or keeping them locked in a safe location while at retreat.
5. Smoking is limited to designated areas only. Smoking is never allowed in or around the cabins or dining hall. There is no smoking while walking on trails or within 25 feet from any building entrance. Designated areas will be marked by our staff and may not be moved without staff direction. Each person is responsible for making sure their cigarettes are properly extinguished and cleaned up. This includes electronic cigarettes.
6. Animals are restricted to service animals only. This does not include companion or therapy animals. Staff must be informed in advance that a service animal will be present. The owner of the animal is responsible for the behavior of the animal and must keep their animal on a leash at all times.
7. Strength for the Journey is a closed campus. Participants are not allowed to leave campus except under staff direction in cases of emergency. Participants who leave will be asked not to return. Guests, unless pre-arranged by staff, are not allowed on site except during drop-off (Mon. 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm) and pick up (Thu. at 10:30 am).
8. Taking photographs /videos of participants without their permission is not allowed. Photographs/videos should not be shared online or publicly without permission from those photographed/recorded. However, Strength for the Journey cannot make any assurances about confidentiality at the retreat. If confidentiality is essential for your personal well-being, please be aware that your presence at the retreat could compromise that.
9. Violence, bullying, or harassment will not be tolerated. Anyone participating in this behavior or known to be compromising the safety of others may be asked to leave. In cases of violence and immediate threats to safety, 911 may be called.
10. Any actions that are illegal in the state of Idaho are also prohibited. All participants are required to adhere to state laws, N-Sid-Sen rules of conduct, and Strength for the Journey rules of conduct. We reserve the right to call 911, your case manager, or your emergency contact should your presence at retreat pose an immediate risk to yourself or others.
